

Jimmy Kimble

January 11, 1977 - June 5, 2026

James Webster Kimble III passed away peacefully on Friday, June 5, 2026, shortly after a sudden cancer diagnosis.

Jimmy was a devoted husband to his beloved wife, Jessica, and a proud dog dad to his cherished fur pups, Shiloh and Dixie. He leaves behind many family members and friends whose lives were enriched by his friendship, humor, and presence.

He will be greatly missed in the goose pit, the duck blind, and at sporting clay tournaments. Those who knew Jimmy will remember his unique outlook on life, his sense of humor, and his ability to do things his own way. In keeping with his wishes, there will be no formal services at this time. Family and friends will gather later this year to celebrate his life, share memories, and honor the man they loved.

There is so much more that could be said about Jimmy and the life he lived. But as he would often remind us, "I ain't got time for that!"

He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew him.

“ I grew up with Jimmy, Jacki, and Jen, and spent so much time at their house that it felt like a second home. Momma Barb was like a second mom to me. Some of my best childhood memories include their family.

I was grateful to see Jimmy at my father's funeral. Never in a million years did I think that would be the last time I'd see him. I hated hearing of his suffering.

Thinking of Little Jimmy, Jacki, Jen, and all who loved him. He was a good person who will be deeply missed. I'll always remember the laughs and good times we shared.

Gone far too soon. Rest easy, Jimmy ❤️
