

Joan Waskey Schulz

June 10, 1945 - April 6, 2021

Joan Waskey Schulz, 75, passed away at Acts Bayleigh Chase in Easton, MD, on April 6, 2021. Joan was born in Baltimore, MD, to Pauline Olivia Downing and Leonard Clifton Waskey. She loved her “girls” Carrie Schulz Oliphant (Jay) and Abby Schulz Latchaw (Mark) and her “grands” Connor and Reese Oliphant and Caden and Sadie Latchaw. Joan is also survived by her brother, Wayne Waskey, and several nieces and nephews.

She lived much of her life in Davidsonville, MD, and was an active member of Davidsonville United Methodist Church for many years. Joan was a high school algebra teacher at Bishop McNamara High School, later transitioning to a career with the Maryland Department of Agriculture. She loved all things Maryland and shopping for a bargain.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Talbot Hospice or in Joan’s honor to the charity of your choice.

A visitation will be held at Davidsonville United Methodist Church at 1:30 pm on Saturday, April 10, 2021, followed by a memorial at 2 pm. COVID-19 restrictions are in place with limited attendance. A Zoom link for the service can be obtained by calling the church office at 410-798-5511.

“ *Dear Schulz family,
I am so sorry for your loss of Joan. I love this picture as it is Joan.
That smile she had always lit up a room. Joan was such a fun person to be around. I always enjoyed fellowshiping with her at DUMC. I know she will be greatly missed but the angels rejoice as she enters into her heavenly kingdom.*

*Sincerely,
Pam and Lee Matousek*
