JOANN SYLVIA FEIFER

CHESTERTOWN, MD: Joann Sylvia Feifer of Chestertown, MD died Friday, August 25, 2006 at the Chester River Hospital Center. She was 63.

Joann Sylvia Feifer was born in Chester, PA on October 12, 1942 to Sophie Golembiewski and the late Stephen Golembiewski. She grew up in Pennsylvania and attended St. Mary's College. She taught school in Pennsylvania until marrying Michael Feifer, Jr. in October of 1965 and moving to New Jersey for his job with Sears. They moved to Virginia and then settled in Maryland in the late 1970's. In Maryland, she continued her career in education, teaching 4th and 5th grades at Sts. Peter and Paul in the mid-1980's. She was a wonder with children and was very loved by her students. She left teaching and worked with the sales department as a secretary at Sevylor, a manufacturer of marine safety equipment, retiring in the early 1990's. Divorcing after more than 25 years of marriage, Michael Feifer, Jr. predeceased her in 2000.

Mrs. Feifer taught piano also, and was the organist at St. Christopher's for a number of years. She was very active in the church. She loved her flowers and gardening and was an artist. She used such textured media as driftwood for her paintings and also created oil paintings and chalk drawings.

Joann Feifer is survived by four children, David Feifer of Grasonville, MD, Michael Feifer of Glen Burnie, MD, Patti Feifer of Grasonville, MD and Michelle Zinn and her husband Tim of Marriottsville, MD; and a granddaughter, Katelyn Zinn, also of Marriottsville, MD.

A graveside service will be held at St. Peters Church in Queenstown, MD on Tuesday August 29, 2006 at 11:00am. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Chestertown Baptist Church at 401 Morgnec Road in Chestertown, MD 21620.
