“ Joel and I were best friends all through high school, joined The Marine Corps together, went through Paris Island, and infantry training together. The Corps took us separate ways. Many years later I ran into Joel at an Easton 7-11 and he did not know me. I had heard he had a stroke and I understood. So many memories of a great person. My hearth goes out to Robert, Carol , David, and a younger sister whose name escapes me. Bless you all.
