

John Edward Crovo

March 30, 1939 - August 24, 2024

John Crovo, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away on August 24, 2024, in Easton, MD. He was born on March 30, 1939, in Washington, D.C., and grew up in Northeast Washington and Hyattsville, MD. He attended Benjamin Franklin University in Washington D.C. John was the son of John and Ivy Crovo and cherished his two sisters, Judith Kelly Sheahin and Patricia Miller.

John married the love of his life, Ruth Crovo, on May 17, 1958, after first meeting at Stewart Jr. High School. Together, they shared 66 wonderful years of marriage and raised three children: Andrew (Sandra) Crovo, Kelley (Daniel) DuBois, and Patrick (Dawn) Crovo. Family was the cornerstone of John's life, and he took immense joy in his role as a father and grandfather to his grandchildren: Kaitlyn (Patrick) Girskis, Carleigh (Micah) Freeman, Christopher (Ashley) Crovo, Connor DuBois, Brayden Crovo, Samantha Crovo, and Casey DuBois, as well as his 12 great-grandchildren.

John proudly served in the U.S. Navy from 1958 to 1961. He had a successful career as the vice president of sales and marketing at JL Clarke, later owning and operating an income tax business, and eventually becoming the president of Watermark Communications. Known for his kindness and compassion, John was a friendly man who made friends everywhere. He dedicated much of his time to volunteering, particularly with the Avalon Foundation and St.

Vincent de Paul, believing wholeheartedly in the importance of community service. John sang in the Bay Country Chorus, a local barbershop style singing group that performed at many senior centers throughout the community.

In his younger years, John was passionate about sports, playing softball and golf, and he enjoyed coaching his children in various activities. His love for his family was evident in everything he did, and he will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

“ I got to know John just these past couple of years from the Bay Country Chorus and you could not fail to love his kind and fun character, always a little joke and smile. Such a gentleman that the old adage “ they dont make em like they used to “ was so true of John. He will be so greatly missed by all who knew him.

“ I first met John when I started to volunteer at SVdP. I worked in the Thrift Store and John was in furniture. He was a delightful man. It was a highlight for me when we worked the same Saturday. I know that he had been feeling poorly last time I saw him at PT but did not expect this. I will truly miss him. My sympathy and prayers go out to Ruth and his family. 🙏.

“ I wish that the people we love could live forever! Unfortunately, this is not true. Over the years, Johnny fought hard to overcome so many medical ailments, so he could spend more time with the love of his life, Ruth. Of course he dearly loved his children, and the rest of his family too. I am so grateful that I got to spend time with Johnny and Ruth, just a few days before he passed. It was a really good visit. I could tell he didn't feel very good. But that didn't stop him from showing that “Johnny smile” and even making a joke or two. He was working really hard to try and get better, so he could go home, and sit in the sunroom, with Ruth. Sadly that was not to be. Maybe his body was just so tired, and needed to rest. I don't know. What I do know, is that John and I will miss him deeply. Down the road, when the sadness starts to lift, we will remember so many wonderful memories with Johnny and Ruth, and we will smile. We send our deepest sympathies and love to Johnny's family, specially Ruth.
