“ I don't remember John but do remember Suzy. I'd like to express my condolences to Suzy and her entire family. I know it's years late but I just learned that Sue married and moved to Maryland where I have been since moving out of Seneca Club Apartments in the summer of 68. Hope everything has gotten better over the past years. Sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Sue and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I will never forget the crab dinner John prepared for us so many years ago. My mouth still waters when I think about good it was. I had never had crabs like that. I had never had the crab seasoning that he used. I will always remember him every time I see or taste that seasoning. I didn't know him very well, but his reputation preceded him. He was a great husband and father. I wish you and your family happiness and loads of good memories to pass on to those wonderful grandchildren. Carol (Papp) Fulton.

“ Dearest Sue and Family,
My deepest sympathy to you all at this difficult time. My loving thoughts and prayers from across the miles to you. Wish I could be there to hold you tight. John was a great man, loving husband and father and will surely be missed. Please know that I'm thinking of you.

*Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away to the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That, we still are.*

*Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way
which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.*

*Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect.
Without the trace of a shadow on it.*

*Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
There is absolute unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind
because I am out of sight?*

*I am but waiting for you.
For an interval.
Somewhere. Very near.*

Just around the corner.

All is well.

Nothing is past; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ Reaching my arms out to the family, letting them know Uncle John will always be in my heart. His laughing eyes, laid back attitude, always ready with a silly song. Loved by so many. Love to all in Maryland and across the land who loved and miss him. From: Heather (Chupa) Radecky and Family
