

John W. Emory

September 1, 1927 - April 7, 2015

John W. Emory of Centreville, MD, died at his home on April 7, 2015. He was 87.

Born on September 1, 1927, in Watersville, MD, he was the son of the late Thomas W. Emory and Ruth Willis Emory. He attended Centreville High School, graduating in the Class of 1944. He attended Johns Hopkins, but his college education was interrupted by the war. Mr. Emory enlisted in the Navy, finishing his college degree after his honorable discharge. In 1954, he opened his John Deere dealership, where he sold farm equipment. In the 1970s, he began selling industrial and automotive equipment. In the late 70s, he was one of six that introduced Liebherr to the United States.

On July 26, 1952, he married Florence Joan Uhlinger from Bayside, NY, and the couple made their home in Centreville, MD.

Mr. Emory and his wife, Flo, have nine children, Mary Beth McCormack, Catherine J. Emory, Patricia Keene, John Emory, Jr., Cynthia Hicks, Mary Sue Swigert, Sandra A. Ross, Helen G. Young and Aimée Emory; nineteen grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his siblings, Marjorie Murdoch, Ruth Geschwilm, and Emily Brice. Two siblings, Kathryn Geschwilm and Tom Emory, predecease him.

A visitation will be held on Friday, April 10, at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD from 6-8 p.m. A funeral liturgy will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 11, at Our Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church in Centreville, MD. Burial will follow in St. Peter's Catholic Cemetery, Queenstown, MD.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Compass Regional Hospice, 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617 or Sts. Peter & Paul ,900 High Street Easton, MD 21601.

“ I remember so many fun weekends at the Emory house when I was a kid! Mr. Emory was always so relatively relaxed given the number of kids running around! And I really loved when our two families got together! Four adults and 16 kids! Such fun, fun memories! And that is what life is about.
