

John F. Ford

December 4, 1952 - February 4, 2020

A kind, thoughtful, generous spirit left this earth Tuesday morning, February 4, 2020. His life was rich and full, he loved deeply, laughed readily, and did not judge. He accepted people for their interesting blend of flaws and idiosyncrasies. He was a wonderful husband, treasured brother, devoted father, and honest friend. He was a respected member of his community; he worked for fairness and compassion; and handled conflict with integrity. His legacy will live on in the many lives he touched. He was a consistent and treasured town leader, most often settling issues with a wry blend of common sense and compromise.

Born John Francis Ford in Dubuque, Iowa, on December 4, 1952, he made a positive impact on many people from his family to his community. He will be long missed.

John was a man of many interests. He was active and loved to play sports. As a young man, he was on the basketball, swim, football, and lacrosse teams. For the last 40 years, he swam at the YMCA at least five mornings a week, often done and gone before most Easton folks had their first cup of coffee.

In 1971, he graduated top of his class at SS Peter & Paul, went on to the University of Delaware, then ultimately got his degree from Towson State University, where he studied literature. He was an avid reader, and took many post-grad literature classes at Washington College. He taught literature, poetry, Shakespeare, American history, civil history, and short stories as a founding member of the Academy for Lifelong Learning at the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum, where he worked as Operations Manager for several decades until his retirement in June 2019. Most recently he was a key founder and president of the Chesapeake Forum, a newly formed adult education organization in Easton, which completed its first semester this fall. John served on the boards of Historic Cemeteries of Easton and Easton's Affordable Housing Board, as well as president of the board of the Chesapeake Multicultural Resource Center and president of the Easton Town Council for many years. He volunteered, he spoke at public events, he gave eulogies, he helped clean the cemetery, he showed up. He cared.

But John would dismiss his many accomplishments, except for one. He felt he was the luckiest man alive, because he was fortunate to have landed the prettiest, nicest, best girl he ever saw. From day one, when he brought her home to meet the family to their wedding in 1978, through his last weeks in the hospital, John's face, especially his eyes, lit up when they came to rest on his dear, Peggy. They were dancing, laughing, ice-cream-eating, dog-walking, hand-holding sight to see. As a fixture in our community, the two of them gladdened hearts, still so infatuated, 42 years in. They were blessed with one son, Benjamin Patrick, and when Benjamin married Kate Livie, it was clear their message of love and devotion was passed on.

John will be deeply missed by his dear wife, Peggy; son Ben (Kate); sister, Mary; brothers, Mike (Patricia), Thom (Leslie Passano), Steve (Donna); many nieces and nephews; countless dear friends; numerous colleagues; and a wide world of people he has touched and heartened. Although the family is struck with grief, we are also grateful that they had John in our lives. He was a rare blend of sincerity and humor, smart but humble, intuitive and generous. There was only one John Ford, and all will miss him the rest of their days.

A Celebration of John's Life will be held on Saturday, February 22, 2020, at 10 AM at Easton High School, 723 Mecklenburg Ave, Easton, MD 21601.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Chesapeake Multicultural Resource Center or the Chesapeake Forum. Or, in the true spirit of John Ford, volunteer your time to give back to his beloved community.

“ Dearest Peggy, John was a kind, sweet caring man whom I will miss seeing smile through whatever situation. Knowing him as a dad and as a tried and true advocate for the East End community, he will remain an anchor in my heart for doing and advocating the good and right things. You are blessed to have walked and danced so many steps together, and may his memory bring you many beautiful smiles. Much love from Joyce DeLaurentis

“ John and I grieve with you, Peggy. Your John was an amazing man! He left his family and friends with a legacy of decency, steadfastness, kindness, generosity, and so much more. Words are simply inadequate. The world will never be quite the same without him.

“ No matter how busy, John would have time for a smile and a pleasant greeting to anyone with whom he came into contact. His was a life well-lived, but too short. A giant hole is in our midst that John filled for so many years. My sympathy and prayers to Peggy and the rest of the family. Marcia Kirby

“ John truly understood the concept of public service because he was naturally interested in other people. He will be missed by those privileged to know him, and particularly by those who had the opportunity to work with him. My thoughts and prayers are with Peggy, Ben and the rest of the family at his untimely passing.

“ John was a leader and inspiration as such a young man, as my classmate in high school. He was creative, brilliant, humorous, and kind. His smile simply invited your confidence and comfort. Although I have been gone from Easton for a long time, my parents are not, and I have been able to keep up with his amazing life through them. The Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum is an incredible place and much of its development was a product of John and his team throughout his years there. He did so much else as well! I look forward to contributing to his educational initiatives as I am a retired teacher of 33 years. I am so sad for the wonderful Ford family - Letting go is so very hard especially when it is too early. I pray that your faith and that the amazing love surrounding him and the legacies that he created, will help you to move to the new way of keeping him close to your hearts.
