

John Reid Galt

July 31, 1962 - July 22, 2023

John Reid Galt of Rock Hall, MD passed away on July 22, 2023. He was 60 years old. Reid was born in Chestertown, MD on July 31, 1962, the son of the late Crawford Reid Galt and Elaine Blair Galt. He grew up on the family dairy farm, High Hopes Farm, and graduated from Kent County High School. Started his own construction business in 1983, Reid's Baycraft. He was a well-known member of the Rock Hall community and was a member of the American Legion Post #228 in Rock Hall.

He will be remembered as a big-hearted man, who deeply loved his animals, family, and friends. He was a fun-loving guy— he loved hard and played hard. He was a gifted and skilled craftsman trusted by many with their builds big or small.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Crawford Galt, and sister, Cynthia E. Galt.

He is survived by his long-time partner, Debbie Hinefelt; daughter, Galerie Rousseau; son, Nyland Galt; brothers, Jeff and Doug Galt; grandchildren: Lenex Force, Elizabeth Peterson, Hailey Hinefelt, and Harley Hinefelt; nieces, Cyndi Galt and Jennifer Cole; nephew, Chris Galt; and great-niece and great-nephew, Blake and Lucy Cole. Services will be determined in the near future.

“ Good bye old friend .

The memories of you and all the good times growing up with you and your family right next door will forever be etched in my mind

I'm sorry for your daughter's and family's loss.

Your mom. Cindy, dad, and Blair will be so glad to see you.

You will be in the Potts family's thoughts and memories.

Only had we been able to harness your energy, it could have powered the world

Later man! Pottsie

My sincere sympathy goes to Reid's family. The Galt family and I go back many decades and I have very fond memories of being on the farm. Rest in peace Reid.

“ I have known and loved Reid most of my life. He and my brother were the best of friends since elementary school and he was my family. He got me in trouble, he had my back. And he always had a smile even when life sucked. I still picture him standing in the kitchen singing "thank God I'm a country boy". Reid, Steve and Ritchie with me tagging along...or trying to- every where. Reid was there as we grew and worked on adulting. We shared many laughs, tears and hugs over the years and no matter how long it had been since we saw each other we both knew the other was there, a call away or a trip up the road. Lots of memories. I could never pick one. Reid lived his life on his own terms. He will be missed by many. I will always hold thoughts of him close to my heart and am glad I was his little sis. He was my friend. I hope he is taking a walk with my brother. Terri Goins Rose

“ Reid was one of my dads best friends since childhood. As a result reid watched me grow up and i have know him all of my 40 years on this earth. He has seen and been their for every milestone, the good, the bad, the struggles, and everything inbetween. Reid was always there to offer kind words or listen to me or life advice. He was like a uncle to me. I remember when i was a kid he sometimes "pass out" or sleep on the sofa in my parents living room. One night i tip toe down and another adult and i came up with an idea. We put womens make up on him, jelly beans, on his closed eyes, and lips. It was a good funny joke. The next morning reid over slept and had to meet a client for work and his construction business, he got up and ran out the house. No one had time to warn him. We all yelled look in a mirror but he never did. Hours later reid called my parents to let them know the client thought reid looked cute in his makeup. Oh he was mad about it at the time, however looken back at reid would always chuckle or laugh when it was brought up. He was a wonderdul great guy and person. He had a lot of love in his heart and He will be very missed. He was well loved, respected and liked by many.
