

John C. Gannon Sr.

June 18, 1960 - October 17, 2020

John Connolly “Jay” Gannon Sr., of Queenstown, MD, passed away on October 17, 2020, at Hospice in Huntington, WV, after suffering a massive stroke. He was 60 years old. Jay was born June 18, 1960, the son of John F. Gannon and Catherine E. Gannon. He graduated from Queen Anne’s County High School in the Class of 1978.

Jay grew up on Dungannon Farm, just north of Centreville, where he learned farming and carpentry work from his father. He worked in different agriculture related positions and worked landscaping and, most recently, worked for Coppage Paving. Jay enjoyed carpentry work, making various wood-working pieces and furniture, traveling, camping, and spending time with his family. In 1980, Jay married his high school sweetheart, Deborah Kaufman of Centreville, who predeceased him in October 2015.

Jay is survived by his two sons, John Connolly Gannon, Jr. and Adam Floyd Gannon, both of Queenstown. He is also survived by his sister, Catherine T. Wood (Victor); his brother, Thomas K. Gannon (Dottie); and his nieces and nephews. He is survived by an aunt, Ann Davenport.

A service will be held on Thursday, October 22, 2020, at 11 am at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD, where friends and family may visit beginning at 10 am. Burial will follow in Chesterfield Cemetery.

To the family: We were neighbors to the Gannon Family for many years while living on Purple Martin Road in Centreville. We watched the kids grow up to be grown adults and the boys worked very close with their dad. Our prayers and blessings are with Jay's family at this time. I had just chatted with recently him telling him how nice the house looked on Railroad Avenue that he had renovated. He was very tickled with it. He will surely be missed in the Community and by his family and friends. God Bless each one of you during this sad time. Gene and Lynda Palmatary
