

John Anthony Giordano

June 20, 1957 - March 2, 2012

John Anthony Giordano of Centreville, MD, died on Friday, March 2, 2012, at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, MD. He was 54.

Born June 20, 1957, in Baltimore, MD, he was the son of Maria Giordano of Pasadena and the late, Samuel Giordano. He graduated from Glen Burnie High School Class of 1975.

John grew up in the Pasadena/Glen Burnie area but loved and lived on the Eastern Shore in Queen Anne's County most of his adult life. He had a long and successful career in many facets of the regional construction and remodeling industry. John cherished his family more than anything in his life, taking particular delight in his role as Popple to his five grandchildren. He also passionately pursued his hobbies of hunting, fishing, and crabbing with family and friends. John lived life large, squeezing every drop of fun out of the life he was granted and spreading that spirit to all those lives he touched.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his wife, Nicole Giordano of Centreville, MD; two daughters, Koree Lins and her husband Jeremy, and Tesa Ryan, both of Centreville, MD; two stepsons, Matthew Douglas and Bryce Douglas, both of Centreville, MD; five grandchildren, Ayna Lins, Andrew Lins, Austin Lins, Olivia Ryan and Cash Ryan; three brothers, Sam Giordano, Gary Giordano, and Ricky Giordano, all of Pasadena, MD; and a sister, Maria Althoff of Annapolis, MD.

Friends may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Centreville, MD, on Tuesday, March 6, 2012, from 2 – 4 and 6 – 8 p.m. Memorial service will be held at St. Christopher's Catholic Church, Chester, MD, on Wednesday, March 7, 2012, at 11 a.m.

“ Dear Maria and family, Life has taken us on different paths, but I can't forget the early times in the neighborhood, when our children were small and we had all our family together. They are good memories. John was a smart, handsome man and I know you will miss him dearly, because your children are your heart. Love, Maria, Chris and family.

Our deepest sympathy with all of John's family. Mrs. G it's especially hard when your child goes before their parents. We know that it is a long hard road and will get better with time. We know from experience. Mom has lost a husband and a son and we have lost a father and a brother. You can only help one another by talking about it and remembering all the good times. Our love, Aleta, Lynne, and Jordan.

“ John,

*You're still here in my heart and mind,
still making me laugh cause your stories live on.
I hold you in a thought and I can feel you.
I feel you and this gives me strength and courage.
The tears I have cried for you could flood the earth and I know you have wiped each one away.
For you Brother, I promise you this,
I will go on with my life and make you proud. I will always hold you in my heart.
I promise you I will be missing you everyday till the end of time, but this is not my end and I can't hold my head underwater....I need to breathe.
I need to love and miss you, but I also need to live because through me you will live,
you will still laugh and love,
you will still sing and dance,
you will still hug and kiss.
You will forever be in our lives,
you will forever be a brother,
a son,
an uncle
and friend.
I am going to miss your shining face
I think of you and wonder why?
I might cry or smile,
but at the end of the day I am one day closer to you....*

“ When I was a very little girl, John was best friends with my cousin Joey Cortina, and my brother Ricky Listman. John was real close to my Dad and family. When I was old enough, I babysat for Tessa and Koree. John used to take me on family vacations to help watch the girls. I loved them so much! I always thought of John as one of the greatest men I knew, and he was always there when you needed him. I will never forget John. I'm so glad he was in our lives. I continue to pray for the family. Hugs and love to all of you. Love, Frannie (Butz) Sonntag.
