“ Dad,

I know you might have left us physically but will always be with us each day which you have already shown. You can now be at ease with all family and friends that has transitioned before you. I know that you will look down with smiles at your children, and grandchildren, Giving us guidance, sharing our memories as we share our great memories of what a wonderful Dad, PoP Pop, who always provided positivity, hope, and most of all love and laughter to everyone around.

Our times were challenging and all of us had our differences, struggles, etc.. But we came over them with our good times and fortunate to have a man in our life like you.

I raise a drink, cause I know that is what you would want! To the man who has had the most influence to me to become the man I am today. To help me be a provider for my wife and children, to give it my all in whatever I choose to do. To the day that comes when we cross paths again, I love, miss you Dad but know you are by our side everyday!

Rest easy...you don't have to worry about taking that last breath anymore.

Love,

John

Well Honey we have had a long road together. Some rocky but mostly great and adventurous. The greatest gift you gave me was your love and our sons. I'm glad we were together at the end. I often wonder could I have done more. But God had something special in mind. So please look after us and keep us in line lol. Love you 🥰
