

John Alford Hubbard

October 9, 1918 - November 30, 2014

John Alford Hubbard, born in 1918, an Air Force Veteran of World War II, died quietly on November 30, 2014, at Heron Point in Chestertown, MD.

His wife, Jeanette, and son Jeffrey, had predeceased him.

John spent many years as an educator at Greenvale School on Long Island, NY. He taught math, English and history. In addition, he later became the assistant headmaster. All through his teaching years, he also coached tennis and other athletic teams, which he greatly enjoyed.

John made an abundance of friends at Heron Point, including the caring staff and the residents. All will miss his ready smile and witty sense of humor. His family members will miss him greatly. His daughter, Sally; son-in-law, Jim; and two grandchildren, Trek and Dorrie, all mourn his loss.

John A. Hubbard lived a full and meaningful life for 96 years. A devoted husband and loving, supportive father, he did much to brighten the world.

Services will be held privately.
