“ A good man or few words, but when he had something to say we listened. I'll never forget growing up with Cheesedog, who I miss dearly, and hanging out in the garage talking about hunting, crabbing, and laughing as some of his hilarious jokes or phrases. His few words still mean plenty in this day. May God Bless Mr. Johnny and his famliy with love and comfort.

“ The Membership of the Kent-Queen Anne's Rescue Squad are saddened to hear of the passing of Life Member John Hurd. Johnny was a member who you did not hear alot from but was always there with a helping hand when we needed one. Our sincere sympathy to his family with special thoughts to his sister (Mary Grussing) who is still one of our members. May he rest in peace now from his labors here on this earth, always willing to help his fellow man in their time of need.
