“ While growing up next door to Mr. Jack, I have many memories but mostly I remember him being lots of fun to be around. He treated us more like family than friends. One thing in particular that will always be a fond memory is that he invited my dad to take me along for the exhibit at the Dover air force base. He showed us around with pride and a few jokes of course. He was the best tour guide ever!! He will surely be missed by me and my family. Sending Much love and prayers for his family ❤️
