

John Guy Lambden

August 15, 1950 - June 25, 2013

John Guy Lambden of Church Hill, MD, died suddenly of natural causes in Easton, MD, on Tuesday, June 25, 2013. He was 62.

Born August 15, 1950, in Washington, DC, he was the son of the late Albert Leroy and Susan Broderick Lambden. He grew up in the suburbs of Washington, DC, and in 1968 he graduated from Annapolis High School. He worked at "Johnson's On the Avenue", a men's haberdashery on State's Circle, Maryland Avenue, Annapolis, MD, where for 25 years he outfitted many Annapolitans. He moved to Centreville in 1984 where he lived until the present.

His passion was cars and collectible cars and his pets. He also loved spending time with his family.

Mr. Lambden is survived by two sisters, Barbara Naumann (George) of Edgewater, MD, and Rosemary Jackson (Pat) of Forest Hill, MD; three brothers, Roy Lambden and Thomas Lambden (Roxanne), both of Church Hill, MD, and Peter Lambden of Edgewater, MD; beloved nieces and nephews; and godfather of Michael Naumann, Patrick Jackson, and Kayla Lambden.

Friends and family may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Centreville, MD, from 11 a.m.– 2 p.m. on Monday, July 1, 2013.

A Funeral Mass will be held at Our Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church,

“ You were my older brother and one of my best friends. So many of my favorite memories include you. I will miss you terribly, and I will carry you always in my heart. Thank you for our endless conversations on every topic imaginable, and for loving and helping my kids as much as you did. There has not been a day in my life thus far that I haven't thought of you and I will continue to do so always. I love you.
