

John Lewis

December 23, 2007

John "Toodles" Edward Lewis of Queenstown, MD died at his home Sunday, December 23, 2007 surrounded by his loving family. He was 69 years old.

Mr. Lewis was born in Centreville, MD on September, 11, 1938 to Mary M. Morris and the late Charles C. Lewis Sr. He graduated Centreville High School in 1956; during that same time, he was the winning pitcher for the Centreville Orioles. After graduation, Mr. Lewis was to try out for the Pittsburg Pirates in 1962; however the U.S. Army called him up and he was unable to play for the team. On February 8, 1964, he married Edith Knight and resided in Queen Anne's County.

After being honorably discharged in 1967, Mr. Lewis started his career as a school bus contractor/driver in Queen Anne's County for 48 years. In addition to being a bus driver, he worked for Park's Garage as a mechanic working on many of the school buses for 20 years.

Mr. Lewis was a member of the Centreville American Legion, social member of the Grasonville VFW and charter member of the Bay Country Moose Lodge in Grasonville. Mr. Lewis also enjoyed bowling, nearly bowled a perfect game, bowling a '290', and was inducted into the A.B.C. Hall of Fame. Mr. Lewis will always be remembered as a generous man; helping anyone who needed it, never asking for the credit.

Mr. Lewis is survived by his wife, Edith Knight Lewis of Queenstown, MD; one son, J.C. Lewis and his wife Mary of Centreville; two siblings, Charles C. Lewis, Jr. of Centreville, MD and Elizabeth Elaine Gawlik of Indiana; and two grandchildren, Jason C. Lewis and Christina Ann Lewis.

A funeral service will be held on Thursday, December 27, 2007 at 11 am at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A. 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, MD 21619. Where family and friends may call between 6 – 8pm on Wednesday, December 26, 2007.

Burial will be in Stevensville Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc. 423 Thompson Creek Road, Stevensville, MD 21666 and/or Queenstown Fire Department, P.O. Box 118 Queenstown, MD 21638.
