“ I would like to extend my condolences to John's family. I worked as a paralegal for him for a year at Lord, Day & Lord in the late 1980's before moving on to grad school. We shared a love of sailing and he was a wonderful person to work with.

“ We are so saddened to have lost a great and wonderful friend. When we moved to Easton, we were privileged to have John and Annie as our next door neighbors, and what beautiful friends they became. John and I argued politics while he drank his Bombay gin and I, my Jack Daniels. We were always intrigued with his many stories of international travel and his exploits in the court of law. Annie, we hurt for you. However, we have such great memories of you and your John and he will be forever missed. we love you both.
