

John Malay

August 5, 1916 - September 19, 2010

Easton – John Arnold Malay passed away on Sept. 19, 2010. He was 94 years old.

Born in East Orange, NJ on August 5, 1916, he was the son of the late John Collins Malay and Luella McNally Malay. He graduated from East Orange High School, and then continued his education by earning a B.S. from Rutgers University in 1939. Mr. Malay served as a Naval aviator from 1943-1945, during which time he met his future wife, who was also serving in the Navy, at Key West, FL. He spent 39 years working for the Mobil Oil Company.

Mr. Malay was a long-time member of the Talbot County Country Club. He was an avid golfer and maintained an interest of flying, which began with his Naval service.

He is survived by his wife, Doris C. Malay; his children, Kathleen Patterson and her husband, Lester, of New Cumberland, PA and John Malay, Jr. and his wife, Janet, of Basking Ridge, NJ; and his grandchildren: Brian Patterson, Christopher Patterson, and Lauren Malay.

All services will be private
