“ Ms. Becky and family; I doubt that you will remember me, from when i lived in Still Pond, However; I remember you and Mr. Budd very well, with good memories. I never saw Mr. Budd without a smile, Always smiling and a caring person, always having something positive to say about others. He was a nice man. Both of you were always so kind to me, although in my youth, what a messed up mess i was. lol.

God Bless you and Thank goodness that there are real true caring people out there like You and Mr. Budd. My thoughts are with you, during this hard time. Please know that you have many true friends, that all are feeling your pain. With kind regards, Arthur Godfrey, Port Orange Florida. (formerly a past resident of Still Pond- mid 80's, ole Vic Kennedy's FH)

Bud was a wonderful neighbor. For twenty years he checked on our garden when we were away and then let us know where the monster zucchini were hiding. When our house was being renovated he came over daily - possibly to the annoyance of the workmen- to make sure the work was being done right. It has been lonely not seeing his smiling face each day and we will miss him. Ruth and Bob

Becky & Family, we couldn't have asked for better neighbors that Budd and Becky. He always had something to say to keep you on your toes and laughing. Budd & Becky both were always looking out for their neighbors and ready to help if needed. I remember when Barbie was about 2, she ran out in front of a care and Budd was the first one to her, not knowing to hug her or yell at her, but the the hug won out. We will miss him so much, but know he is in a better place. Love Larry & Barbara

“ Dearest Chris, You have been your father's earth angel and now your Dad is in the Presence of Our Holy Father and His Joyous Angels. The pain, grief, heartache and sense of loss is so very overwhelming when "Daddy's little girl" loses her Daddy. May your memories give you comfort and may you feel God's Peace. I remember your Dad as quite the "joker" and always having a smile. Peace be with you, your Mother and your extended family. In Christ's Love, Bev & Doug Foreman.

“ *Mr Bud, such a happy, "jolly", man . . . he is with God now and knowing this, I pray that you, Mrs. Becky and Chrissy, and your family will find comfort in this as well. Yet he is always with you in memory and Mrs. Becky, you two will be together again one day. Just as I and Marcus will be. God is always here for us . Go to Him, let Him help you through your grief.
We love you Mrs. Becky and will do anything we can to help you. In Jesus Name,
Amen!*

Mrs. Becky, Chris and family of Mr. Bud. My sincere sympathy to all of you. Mr. Bud was a great person and will be missed by many. I will always remember his smile. Keep those memories close to heart. What a great idea to have friends and family over Sunday for a celebration of life. May God bless all of you and keep you in His care.
