

John Morris Pollock

September 2, 1938 - March 4, 2020

John Morris Pollock of Stevensville, MD, died at his home on March 4, 2020. He was 81.

Born on September 2, 1938, he was the son of the late Jesse and Katherine Kramer Pollock, Sr. Mr. Pollock worked first as a printer for the Port City Press. He then opened his own cleaning business, Ajack's, which served Baltimore City and County. Later, he opened his own bar in Baltimore City. He then worked for the Baltimore School District as a school bus driver and bus driver trainer. Mr. Pollock enjoyed reading, watching tv, and cooking.

He is survived by his sons, Christopher Pollock of Stevensville, MD, and Jack Pollock of Essex, MD; a grandson, Christopher Pollock, II; siblings, Jesse Pollock, Jr. and Peggie Young; and his cousins, Marie Dunsmore and John Cinnaman. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Prestina Phillips Pollock, in 1999.

All services will be held privately.

Tribute Wall

“ John Morris Pollock

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ John Morris Pollock

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ John Morris Pollock

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ I was just asking Robin Bitner about Jack. I'm am so sorry for your loss, Cal and Jack were friends from way back that's how I befriended Jack. Both were a trip. I have a video Of Jack and Tina back in the 90's at a party at the Bitners. Again so sorry for your loss. God Bless.

Ernie Beidleman - February 13, 2022 at 10:00 AM