“Cousin John was a great member of the family. He traveled out here to Suquamish to visit his aunt/cousin Helen (my mom) and the rest of us many years ago. We discussed our family genealogy that he worked so hard to sort out from a variety of sources. I got to spend time with him in Baltimore on my business travels to Washington DC. He had a great sense of humor and was a great philosopher of life. Leonard Forsman, Suquamish, WA

“Brother John was a faithful Mason whose life reflected the quiet virtues of our Craft, kindness, integrity, and service to others. Though his earthly labors are ended, his light remains among us as a steady reminder of the fellowship and devotion that unite all Masons beyond the veil of time. I will always cherish the historical books you shared with me, and the time we spent together in church and lodge.
