Heartfelt condolences on the passing of an incredible man. I still laugh at the story of my sweet little catholic-boy/husband Kevin (age 6) telling John that he was not in school because it was a Jewish holiday! I remember how John was there for us when Kevin's parents passed. I also remember the John who was my college professor. As I sit here and look at the hand painted box he made for us, I will forever remember what a kind, gentle, beautiful man he was and how he loved to laugh. He loved his family and was loved by all who knew him.

There is a mini-Laurel lane reunion going on in heaven right now. But here on earth, he will be sorely missed.

“ Lynne, Lori, Lisa, Mrs Palmer,

I'm sorry I won't be able to get down this weekend, but I hope to see all of you soon. For many years, I felt closer to you than to my own family. Mr. Palmer always made me feel welcome, he treated me almost like an extra daughter. He will be missed!
