

John Everett Russell

June 26, 2000

John Everett "Epps" Russell, a lifelong resident of Oxford until 1999, died at the Genesis Eldercare-The Pines in Easton on Monday, June 26, 2000. He was 90.

Born in Oxford on March 14, 1910, he was the son of the late John and Elmira Ellison Russell. He was a commercial waterman and a captain on "The Elise" for many years before going to work at Crockett's Boat Yard. He retired as a foreman after 37 years of service. He had a great love for art and enjoyed painting. His wife, the former Katherine Purnell, died in 1980.

Mr. Russell is survived by several nieces and nephews, including Patricia A. Potter of Oxford, who took care of him; several great-nieces and great-nephews, including Michele Potter Williams of Trappe, Kimberley Potter Corkran of Parsonsburg, and Dawn Potter Cecil of Trappe; two sisters, Ruth Daffin of Tunis Mills and Margaret Dobson of St. Michaels; a brother, Allen Russell of Laurel, DE. A sister, Viola Sevier, and two brothers, Paul Russell and Melvin Russell, are deceased.

Memorial services will be held at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Oxford on Friday, June 30, 2000 at 11:00 AM. Burial will be in the St. Stephen's Cemetery in Delmar, DE on Friday at 2:00 PM.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Oxford Volunteer Fire Department, Oxford, MD 21654.
