

John James Gerwig

May 1, 2007

John James Gerwig, 58, of Kent Island, and a lifelong resident of Maryland, died suddenly May 1 from a stroke.

He was born March 19, 1949 in Baltimore. He was the son of John and Eunice Gerwig.

He graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute in 1967 and received a degree in Engineering from Drexel University in 1971. He retired from the federal government in 2006 after a lifetime career.

He enjoyed traveling the country with his wife in their RV, playing NTN trivia, and spending time with family and friends. He was loved for his sense of humor, kindness, and generosity of spirit.

Surviving are his wife, Tracey Leonard Gerwig; one son, Roy Gerwig of West Virginia, two daughters, Joy Gerwig of Severn, and Christy Redman of Beckley, West Virginia; two stepchildren, Cory Zepp of Kent Island and Becki Zepp of the home; one sister, Linda Good; and four grandchildren. His parents also survive him.

He was formerly married to Linda Gerwig of Severn.

Services and interment will be private.

Donations in his memory may be made to the American Stroke Association,
415 North Charles Street, Baltimore, MD 21201.
