

John Michael Strueber

February 10, 2003

John Michael Strueber, of Oxford, died at his home on Monday, February 10, 2003 after a long battle with cancer. He was 48.

Born in Miami Beach, FL, August 24, 1954, he was the beloved son of Joan Maher Strueber, of Annapolis, MD and the late John E. Strueber. He grew up in the Baltimore area where he spent much of his formative years sailing on the Chesapeake Bay. After graduating from Towson Senior High School, he went on to earn his captain's license and pursue a career as a skipper of sailing yachts in the Mediterranean and Caribbean Oceans. A born adventurer with a need for speed, he was also an expert snow skier, a licensed instrument-rated pilot, a certified glider pilot and race car driver.

Since October of 1988, he had resided in Oxford, MD where he worked as the General Manager of the Oxford Boat Yard. He continued to pursue his love of sailing while serving as a valued crew member on various racing vessels in the Glen-Mar Sailing Association, the Annapolis Yacht Club and, most recently, the Tred Avon Yacht Club.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, are his wife, the former Braxton Warren whom he married in Baltimore on September 2, 1984; three sisters, Mary Strueber and Julie S. Barrett, both of Annapolis and Sharon S. Slevin of Towson; a brother, Frank A. Strueber of Monkton and eight nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be held on Thursday, February 13th, at 1 P. M. at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD.

A reception will immediately follow at the Oxford Fire Hall, Rte 333 in Oxford, MD.

Private burial will be at the Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Memorial donations in John's memory, may be made to the Chesapeake Regional Accessible Boating (C.R.A.B.), PO Box 6564, Annapolis, MD 21401 or to the Immigration Outreach Center at St. Matthews Church, 5401 Loch Raven Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21239.
