

John W. Cheezum

December 16, 2004

John W. "Jack" Cheezum of Greensboro, Md. died at Memorial Hospital, Easton on Thursday December 16, 2004. He was 64.

Born in Easton on July 8, 1940 he was the son of the late Charles "Pop" and Dorothy Grenadier Cheezum. He attended Talbot County Schools in Cordova and Easton. He lived most of his life in the Cordova area and then moved to Greensboro.

He worked for a number of years at Whalen Industries until his retirement for health reasons. Jack sang and played country music with his brother Eddie Cheezum and the Country Redtops. Later he sang and played bass guitar with Vic Tribbett and the Country Troubadours. Jack has always had a love for Bluegrass music and has been going to different places on weekends strumming his guitar and singing for the fun and enjoyment. He last played at the Saturday Night Jam Session at Pine Valley Park in Denton.

He is survived by a son, David Cheezum from Old Orchard Beach, Maine, two brothers and two sisters, Eddie Cheezum and wife, Mary Ann of Hillsboro, MD, Paul Cheezum and his wife Jackie of Greensboro, MD, Evelyn Kemp and her husband Jr. of Trappe, MD and Joann Clough and her husband, Charlie of Easton, MD.

Services will held at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A. in Easton, on Tuesday, December 21, 2004 at 11:00 a.m. where friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be at Greenmount Cemetery in Hillsboro.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, Talbot County Unit, P. O. Box 1306, Easton, MD 21601.
