

Jonathan Nicholas Arrabal

July 20, 1983 - February 5, 2019

Jonathan Nicholas Arrabal, of Annapolis, MD, passed away on February 5, 2019. He was 35.

Born on July 20, 1983, in Jackson, MS, he was the son of Dr. John C. Arrabal, Jr. of Church Hill, MD, and Retha J. Hale Arrabal of Chestertown, MD. Jonathan graduated from Kent County High School, Class of 2001. He enlisted in the Marine Corps, where he served for 2 ½ years.

Jonathan was married to Chris Hicks for two years. He worked for several years as a carpenter, most recently with Blackketter Craftsman, Inc., in Millersville. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, doing pranks, skiing, snowboarding, and truly loved doing anything outdoors. Jonathan was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Chestertown.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his paternal grandmother, Diana M. Arrabal; his sisters, Christyl Leigh Akseraylian of Baltimore and Katherine Maryne Arrabal-DeMarsi of Chestertown; one niece; two nephews; and his fiancé, Taylor Ann Butterworth.

Services will be held on Sunday, February 10, 2019, at 1:00 pm, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Road in Chestertown, where a visitation will be held two hours prior (11am-1pm).

Interment will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, a college fund will be set up for his soon to be daughter, Marley-Jo Lyanna Arrabal, c/o Peoples Bank.

They loved spending time and playing at his campsite. We exchanged info and stayed in touch thereafter. Getting this news was shockingly sad. I'm so sorry for his family and friends.*

Doctor Arrabal and your entire family, We are so very sorry for your precious loss. I wish I knew the exact comforting words for you as losing a child, grandchild, spouse or sibling is the hardest thing in the world. I pray that you always remember the fun things you did with Jonathan and laugh out loud when you think of something funny. I am sure he would like to be remembered that way.
