“ My family and I have known Mr. Joe for a long time, so sorry to hear of his passing....The Bernard's had a shore home on Middle River in Bauernschmidt Manor, and would be there every weekend. I lived year around there just a few houses down the street from them. I met Joe's daughter Paula at around age 5....and we are still friends today....Mr. Joe and my Dad were friends and good neighbors.....Joe helped my Dad on several occasions , but the biggest one was building an upstairs addition to our house for our growing family. Both men would work their regular jobs, then built this addition in their spare time on weekends and evenings! ...a fun thing Joe built was a tarzan swing at the end of his pier...so much fun jumping off that thing!!!..He loved watching all the kids have fun in the water and crabbing....Joe and dad bought kits to make sailboats! small, about the size of a dingybut boy did we have fun in those!!!.....these are just a few of the fond memories I have of Mr. Joe.....a hard working man , good friend, good neighbor.... May you rest in Peace Mr. Joe!!!!
