“ We loved Joe Campbell. He was classic, unique, but 100% genuine. We kept our boat at Northpoint Marina for 6 years and got to know Joe and Lori and in doing so, came to love them both very much. We were greatly saddened to learn of his illness a few years ago. Joe was affectionately known as "The Head of Public Relations" for Northpoint Marina by the slip holders because of his non-nonsense and even shocking handwritten signs and notes he sometimes left around the marina. We never saw the ones that Lori wouldn't let him post!

I enjoyed talking with Joe in private in the early morning when he was taking care of the pool. They said it couldn't be done, they said it would never happen - but I had the pleasure of working with Joe Campbell one day repairing a leaking forward hatch on our trawler. He was in charge and I was his helper. He did a great job and was meticulous, precise, and thorough. I was proud to be able to say that we worked together - even if for a single day.

Lori - we will be praying for you in this time of your loss. Please stay in touch as you are able.

“ Lori, I am saddened to read the news of Joe. I think Joe, as a contractor, had his eye on you from the beginning, thinking to himself, only if i could put my highest contractor skills to use and build a relationship that would last every storm and into the heavens. I believe Joe meant that, when he met you. Contractors always think outside the box. After all, look what he built, in a life long relationship with his beautiful Lori. I know the recent times have been hard, Lori, Always think of where his heart was, through his trials and tribulations of his illness. Smile at the good times, The risk of loving is hurt. You wouldn't hurt, if you hadn't loved this man named Joe. God bless. My heartfelt condolences are with you during this tough patch. Prayers.

“ Joe was definitely a wonderful brother-in law. He was good to all of us. There was not a cleaner and better looking marina than North Point Marina as Joe made sure of that. He wanted to do everything himself even when he shouldn't have. However, he had that drive to do his best and he did. Joe will be missed and has been missed for a couple of years. He is in a better place now and is being looked after by a higher being than here on earth. Joe, we love you. Lori our hearts go out to you and your family as I know the grandchildren are missing their "Pop". We sure are. Eddie and Rita.
