“ I'm so sorry to read of the passing of Mr. Carr. Growing up on Bennett Point road, there weren't many kids so we all seemed to end up together...no matter the age difference. I'm sending up prayers for peace of mind for each of you, know that he's now at peace.

Mr. Carr was the principal at Rockledge ES when I was a student there. I'm ashamed to admit it, but, I was sent to his office at least 1 time that I remember, but looking back, I deserved the visit and he certainly treated me fairly. Back then, we respected the teachers, and especially the principal. He seemed larger than life to me at the time. Thank you for your dedication to children Mr. Carr.

Chuck Wolfe, thank you for your post. My dad loved children and he loved all of the students in his schools. He would have been honored to know he impacted your life.
