“ Joe,

This hurts Joe. You left way to soon. I'm glad I got to see you before you left though. Say hello to Aunt Mable, Aunt Lib, Aunt Dede and Aunt Agnes. I know the gals are going to have plenty to say to you when you get home. I know they'll appreciate the company. I'm so sorry your gone Joe but I look forward to seeing you again in Heaven. I'll get us some tickets to see the Stones! Love you

Your Cousin Vinny

“ Joe, you were a true blessing to me and I cherish the time we had together. You are one of the great loves of my life and I will never forget you. My heart is broken. Echo and I look for the brightest star at night and know your spirit lives on. You were my honey and I your dear, until we meet again. I love you. Leeann

“ Joe it's so hard to believe you are no longer here with us. I still feel the closeness of the beautiful friendship we have shared all these years. I will miss our endless conversations and always treasure them.

I am relieved you are no longer in pain

I know you are reunited with so many people that you love including your beloved Charlie.

I love you so much my friend!

“ Joe my friend I'm deeply saddened by your passing & will have fond memories of the times we shared together. It's heartbreaking to say the least but I'm so happy you reconnected with your family cause I know that's what you wanted more than anything. You will be surly missed by me and countless others whose lives you touched. Til we meet again may God keep you in his care.

“ Joe my brother I am so glad we reconnected with each other. Even though it was too short. Some of my best memories are of us fishing. The trophy bass you caught on Mayfield Lake. How we would stay out fishing because either we were having no luck and we were going to stay until we "caught some damn fish " or we were doing great. Then there was the time we were on the Lady Lil out of Glen Cove we were fishing for blues and you caught the only two weakfish and you won the pool.
Joe I love you
Your brother Pat
