

Joseph Gordon Eggers Sr.

December 3, 1975 - December 14, 2023

Joseph Gordon Eggers Sr. 48, passed away at his parents home in Chestertown, MD, on December 14th 2023.

Joseph was born at the University of Maryland in Baltimore, MD, on December 3, 1975, the son of Gordon Barnett Eggers and Marie (Nelka) Eggers. Joseph attended Chesapeake high school up until the 11th grade, although he did not graduate. Later he became a electrician throughout his life and did some plumbing as well. Throughout later years he did a lot of side jobs. He married Melanie (Galster). and two children Cheyeanne Eggers, and Joseph Eggers.

Joseph away's enjoyed Fishing, hunting, movies, like lord of the rings or the Hobbit as well as the discovery Channel, being outdoors, or by the water, as well as spending time with his friends and family. He was even on a bowling league when he was younger. He also loved music and singing a lot. Joseph was a loving husband and father for many years, he knew how to make anyone laugh and was so funny, all around an outgoing person. He loved crabs, wings, sandwiches, Reese cups, gummie candies and iceys. He also loved animals, cats, dogs, and reptiles, most of all though he loved snakes they were his favorite. He also loved cars, but his favorites were a Chevelle and a Camaro, he even had a 1970 Chevelle.

He is survived by his ex-wife Melanie Velasquez, daughter Cheyeanne Marie Eggers, son Joseph Gordon Eggers Jr, his first and so far only grandson Liam Gordon Jacob, brother Gordon Barnett Eggers Jr, his sister in-law Tiffany Eggers, as well as 3 nieces and nephews Brian, Michael, and Ally, mother Marie Eggers, and Father Gordon Barnett Eggers Sr.

“ I am so very sorry for everyone’s loss. Hold fast as it IS PROMISED! We all SHALL meet again! I have some fond memories with Joe. We’d reconnected a couple years back and found peace in some things unresolved. I was truly whole heartedly happy for him in his accomplishments ☐☐. He’d found his center and was truly a wonderful man. Gone too soon. Thank you Aunt Trish for reaching out and letting me know. Love to ALL...

Sincerest Sympathies—

*A friend always,
