*Joe, I thank you for the many times you blessed me by your smile, presence in church, greetings while hospitalized and the last few days in hospice. You were such a cordial man loving the Lord and all your precious family. I always enjoyed our chats and discussions. Your friendship will be missed but I know you are with our Lord and no longer suffering.
Tomorrow I will not be saying good bye because you are with the Lord. It will be Joe I and many will see you again in Heaven with our Lord.

Such a kind, gentle man who left a mark on everyone who ever met him. I will never forget our chance meetings at auctions that turned into long-winded conversations or our many our shared laughters at children's parties. He will be so very missed.

“ My dad was the best man I know. He loved everyone. He was always there for me when I needed to talk about anything. He became my best friend. His last words to me was I love you. Last night he was not responding to anyone. When I arrived he opened his eyes and looked at me. He said I love you and answered a few yes and no questions. He was in so much pain. I never wanted to see him suffer. I will miss him every second of every day for the rest of my life. Rest in peace dad.
