“ Jack was my brother-in-law, but I never thought of him as anything but family. He has always held a special place in my heart. He was a kind, gentle man, who never said anything bad about others and always treated me good. He loved his family and his dog, Buster. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, especially by Nick, his youngest grandson. RIP.... You are in God's hands now and there's no better place to be. love, Rosine and Julius
