“ Our deepest sympathies to the Robertson families and our heartfelt prayers and thoughts are with you during these difficult days. Joe and I will always remember our dear sweet neighbor with his ready smile, winning way, and quiet presence that enfolded you with his easy spirit. During better times we often joked about his trek to retrieve his morning newspaper accompanied by much waving hello to me and Joe (and our barking dogs). Maryanne we grieve with you and miss our sweet Joe. But this is how we best remember him, smiling in the morning sunshine, walking down the steps, anticipating the day and waving hello.
