“ Sending our condolences for the loss of Joe. Joe was a very special friend for forty years and truly missed by all. He was always there to help us anytime no questions asked. We loved his fun-loving spirit, practical joker at times with Jerry. I know Brian was there to meet him in heaven with a big smile and good joke. He will be your Angel.

“ Joe will be so missed. Such a good family man and friend. He was our social butterfly. Loved by all. Kept us all updated on what was going on in the neighborhood. Although family and friends are very sad I know our Mark was right there with the biggest smile and hug to greet Joe.
