“ Your knowledge and wisdom about nearly everything I needed to learn growing up will never leave my mind. I couldn't have been luckier having the best pop-pop just a door away. All the beach, hunting, fishing..etc memories will stay with me all my life. You were such a strong man never afraid to say your opinion, which I honestly loved about you. Now you can rest peacefully and catch as many fish as you want. Love you more than you'll know.

“ Uncle Joey, you were always one of my favorites.....I had no idea that you were suffering from this terrible illness. I remember growing up and always being at your house for crabs and my parents were always visiting with you and the boys. I hope you hang out with my mom and dad. I am sending prayers to your wife and family. Hugs!

“ Joe will be truly missed by his family and friends regardless of length of time they knew him. His whistling, wise cracks and sheer joy he brought to everyone. Love and miss you babe.

“ John and I are saddened to learn that Joe passed away. We had no idea he had been so sick. But that was Joe...he never was talking about himself and letting you know his troubles. He was such a great neighbor; willing to help you with anything. We know how much he loved the outdoors and we always took great pleasure in hearing about his latest catch. We will miss him. God bless his family and Vickie during this difficult time.
