“ My brother Joseph Patrick was called Pat for a large portion of his jife! He was the forth child in our famil of 12 living cildren !! Our cildhood was spent on Benson Avenue near St Agnes Hosptal.we played outside a lot, rode in the back of our Uncle Joe DeBoy’s pick up truck! We played a lot of baseball in the firleld behing our Pop Pop DeBoy’s home next door! I’ll never forget the time he was riding a pony from Gwynn Oak Park that my Uncle Harry took care of in the off season! The pony decided to run away with him so je jumped off of the pony as it was passing Pop’s mailbox! It was an exciting day! We also spent many wonderful summers at Gittings Shore and he enjoyed fishing and crabbing, swimming, sunbathing and playing shuffleboard! Many fond memories! Godspeed my brother! No mor pain! No more suffering! Test in the arms of our Lord!
