

Joy Lynn Patchett

August 1, 1955 - February 24, 2025

Joy Lynn Patchett of Queenstown, Md., passed away on Monday, February 24, 2025 at The Pines in Easton, Md., she was 69. She was born on August 1, 1955 at Memorial Hospital in Easton, Maryland and was the daughter of the late Rowland Samuel Patchett, Sr. and Marie Gardner Patchett of Queenstown, Md.

Joy Lynn graduated from Queen Anne's County high School in 1973, and Salisbury State University in 1977. She earned her Master's degree in Psychology from Washington College in Chestertown, Md. in 1980. Afterwards she worked in private and government institutions until she retired in 2015. She loved helping her clients get the help they needed, either through placement or home care, and carried their stories and memories in her heart right to the end of her time on this earth. She asked that her friends and co-workers remember her with a smile.

Known as "Aunt" to her nieces and nephews she loved traveling with them on vacations and going to their various activities they were involved in, or just plain hanging out with them. Someone once asked if she had children, and she said: "I have six, and I can send them back whenever I want." Her sense of humor was its own style.

Joy Lynn is survived by her sister Diana Tarrant (Stuart) of Queenstown, brother Sam Patchett (Melissa) of Preston, and sister Sandy Kendall of Centreville. Her nieces and nephews Aubrey Bissessar (Ranji), Josh Kendall, Justin Kendall, Megan Coxon (Jake), Austin Patchett (Tiara), and Avery Tarrant. Great nieces and nephews Madeline, Blake, Reagan, Owen, Devin, and Dallas. Godchild Christina Noel (Miles) Robinson. Kids keep your happy memories of her in your hearts.

In addition to her parents, she is predeceased by her sister Patricia (Patti) Patchett.

Funeral services will be private on a later date. Donations may be offered to Saving Future Feral Cats at 205 Bay City Road, Stevensville, Md. 21666.
