

Joy A. Sorenson

September 7, 1946 - May 30, 2012

Mrs. Joy A. Sorenson, 65, a longtime resident of Easton, MD, died peacefully on May 30 at The Pines in Easton. She was the wife of Floyd Sorenson, whom she married on August 20, 1989 in Connecticut.

Joy was born September 7, 1946, in Stamford, CT, to the late A. Howard Andersen, and Miriam Pultz-Bein of Florida. She graduated from the former Rippowam High School in Stamford, CT, in 1964. Later in life, Joy realized a lifelong dream and earned her Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Salisbury University in Salisbury, MD, after permanently re-locating with her husband from Connecticut to Easton shortly after they were wed.

Joy was a passionate animal welfare advocate during all of her life, and either belonged to or volunteered at local animal welfare societies during her time in both Connecticut and Maryland.

Joy was a talented amateur singer who was a member of the choral group "The Kent Singers" during her younger years in Connecticut. Joy especially loved singing in her church choirs. Joy was an active member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Easton, and sang with their choir for several years.

In addition to her husband, Floyd, and mother, Miriam, Joy is survived by her daughters, Debbie Boyer and her husband, David, of CT; Gail Marquette of Ellicott City, MD; Judy Sorenson of Palm Beach Gardens, FL; her son, Peter Sorenson, of New Haven, CT; her half-sisters, Nancy Peace and her husband Jay of GA, Mary Kader and her husband, Victor of IL, and Karen Carlson and her husband Dale of IN; her half-brother, Eric Anderson and his wife Janice of GA; as well as nieces, nephews, and a cousin.

A memorial service will be held at the Immanuel Lutheran Church on June 24 at 1 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Immanuel Lutheran Church, 7215 Ocean Gateway, Easton, MD 21601.
