

Joyce Louise Garrison

February 7, 1948 - December 28, 2012

Joyce Louise Garrison died December 28, 2012 under hospice care in Centreville, MD.

Joyce was born to Richard and Alice Hummell on February 7, 1948 in Baltimore, MD, the youngest of 6 siblings. Soon afterward, her family moved to Anne Arundel County, where she enjoyed country living. She loved animals of all kinds as well as people. She got along well with everybody. She was fun to be around and easy to know and like. She loved to play sports, bowling, camping, fishing, boating and music. She was a keyboard enthusiast, computer gamer and karaoke singer. She especially liked singing Patsy Cline songs. But her greatest enjoyment was spending time with family and friends.

Joyce married Richard (Rick) Morgan Garrison when she was 21 years old. She had met Rick while he was home on leave from serving in Vietnam. They had a whirlwind romance of a couple of days and then married. They were together for 25 years. During that time, she worked and then retired as a telephone operator for C & P Telephone, and went to work at North Arundel Hospital in Glen Burnie, MD, where she found herself in the telecommunication department. After many years there, she decided to leave and travel.

She traveled to numerous places before settling down for a period of time in Everett, Washington, living on a yacht and loving it. She enjoyed whale watching, watching playful otters, and catching her own dinners, such as salmon and Dungeness crabs.

Then she met her finacé, Emory (Chuck) Burgess and moved to his hometown of Charleston, West Virginia, for the last 10 years of her life. Her home was located halfway up a mountain with a natural waterfall beside their home. Just Beautiful.

Joyce had one son, Marshall Alan Hummell; and three grandsons: Travis Alan Hummell (19), Ronald (Ronnie) Morgan Hummell (6) and Daniel (Danny) Hummell (4), all of whom she loved very much; as well as cousins, nieces and nephews.

During her last months, she enjoyed visits from friends and family that shared comforting thoughts from the scriptures.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 pm on Saturday, January 12 at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Chester, MD.

“ My name is Bruce Anthony(Roger)Hummell. I am Joyce Hummell first cousin. As I remember my cousin they're certainly to me know one like her...her great charming personality, her pretty gold hair "cherry 🍷 lips, she had the greatest prettiest 😊 smile. She was brave, she was A true social leader, for example, if you were at a party she would welcome you with laughter and of course that pretty smile, she didn't smile all the time, but when she did you could definetly see the wanting beauty. My dear cousin you shall never,be forgotten.
