

Joyce Perkins Snow

October 2, 1932 - March 2, 2023

Joyce Perkins Snow was born on October 2, 1932, in Jasper, FL, to the late James Perkins and Ollie Mae Caldwell Perkins. She attended Jasper High School and graduated Class of 1950. After graduation, she moved to Maryland and was employed with the Social Security Administration.

In 1952, she married Ronald Snow, and they resided in Sykesville, MD. Mrs. Snow stopped working in 1956 to be home and care for her children. The family moved to the Eastern Shore of Maryland in 1958 and resided in Chester. Mrs. Snow was Deputy Town Clerk in Centreville, MD, from 1968 to 1970. In 1985, she began her career with the State of Maryland, first working as a toll collector on the Bay Bridge, then for the Income Tax Division and finally for the Comptroller's Office where she retired from in 2000 as an auditor.

Mrs. Snow is a long-time member of the Christ Episcopal Church in Stevensville, MD. She volunteered at Christ Church and Estate Treasures until she was unable. She enjoyed traveling (Hawaii and Alaska being her favorites), line dancing, playing cards, sewing, swimming, and fishing on the Chesapeake Bay, and spending time with family.

Mrs. Snow is survived by her four children, daughter, Linda Williams and husband Tom; three sons, Michael Snow and wife Brenda, Gerald Snow and wife Donna and Christopher Snow and fiancé Mei-Ling Chen; six grandchildren, Jennifer Thommen and husband Steven, Joey Snow, Justin Williams, Erin Williams Traum and husband Michael, Matthew Snow and wife Brittany and Jarod Snow; and one great-grandchild, Julien Thommen.

In addition to her husband of 35 years, Ronald Snow, she was predeceased by her siblings, Marcile Powers, Anna Ruth Terry, Dorothy Johnson, Raymond Perkins, Mary Powers, Bruce Perkins and Gwendolyn Perkins.

A service will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester, MD, on Saturday, March 11, 2023, at 1 p.m. with a visitation beginning at 11 a.m. Burial is to follow the service in Stevensville Cemetery.
