

Judith Anne Keith

October 9, 1940 - June 7, 2016

Judith Anne Keith of Centreville, MD, passed away on June 7, 2016, at Anne Arundel Medical Center. She was 75.

Born on October 9, 1940, in Worcester, MA, the daughter of the late Lloyd and Edith Thomas, Judy grew up in the Rhode Island area with her brother, Lloyd, and sisters, Jeanne and Barbara.

On February 5, 1963, she married Benjamin Keith and moved to Maryland shortly thereafter. They resided in the Centreville area for over 30 years. Judith was a proud volunteer nurse with AAMC from 1989 – 2010. She also volunteered installing and assisting with lifelines. Judith loved raising her pets, enjoying her hummingbirds, cooking, reading, and ceramics in her younger years.

She is survived by her loving husband of 53 years, Benjamin Keith; sons, Tom Keith of Queenstown, MD; Chris Keith (Teresa) of Crofton, MD; grandsons, Jacob and Robert Keith of Crofton, MD; sister, Jeanne Casey of Centreville, MD; daughter-in-law, Tammie Ragan-Keith; and celebrity K-9 Atika Bear, her son Tom's dog. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her brother, Lloyd, and sister, Barbara.

A memorial service will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the American Legion
Jeff Davis Post 18, 2619 Centreville Road, Centreville, MD 21617.

“ So many memories, So many years. I love you all and hold you in prayer. Picturing Linda and Judy waiting for the third musketeer. Surely shaking there head that I was at the WRONG American Legion.

I found out from Jude Brown that her Mother, Anne's Birthday was the same day that Mrs. Keith passed. Anne and Mrs. Keith were life long, best friends. I'm sure they had one heck of party that night. 🙏🎂🎉🌹
