

Judith Ann Sheubrooks

April 30, 1948 - October 10, 2020

Judith Ann Sheubrooks, 72, of Centreville, MD, passed away on October 10, 2020, at her home, surrounded by her beloved family. She was born on April 30, 1948, in Easton, MD, the daughter of the late John and Ruth Legg.

Judy grew up a tomboy on the less inhabited and more peaceful Kent Island of the 50's and 60's. She could be seen barefoot and outdoors most of time, whether riding her bike to her two-room school in Chester, catching crabs along the shore of her family's farm or playing backyard ball with her many cousins. She attended Stevensville High School and worked alongside her mother at the Tastee-Freez. She excelled at every sport, especially softball and basketball, even at 5'2". Judy graduated in 1966 and was very proud to earn the title, Athlete of the Year. She remembered high school as some of her best years because of the friendships she formed and valued.

After high school, she began a successful 10-year career with the Department of Natural Resources in Annapolis and would later establish a new office in Centreville. Judy and Larry married in '72 and together they built a successful farming operation. Once Jason arrived, she began her next lifelong and fulfilling career as mother and farm wife. She made sure Jason, the apple of her eye, was always active in farm life, sports, and surrounded by cousins and friends. Judy enjoyed volunteering her time at Centreville Elementary, assisting mostly with Physical Education classes. She played an integral role in farming operations; driving tractors, managing the office, and moving equipment were just a few of her responsibilities. No matter how busy, Judy never missed Jason's games or any valuable time with family and friends. She treasured her time vacationing in Ocean City, MD, with her parents, sister, nephews, extended family and lifelong friends, a tradition of over 50 years.

Judy adored her four grandchildren. She was their biggest cheerleader and never missed a milestone. She loved watching Wyatt's baseball games (and happily took credit for his athleticism). She was beyond proud of Sawyer's love for farming and his many 4-H projects. She cherished her time with Summer and Willow and could always be seen chuckling at their never ending shenanigans. Her last and only wish was to watch them grow up.

In addition to her parents, Judy is predeceased by her brother in laws, Lee Sheubrooks and Andy Wilcox.

Judy is survived by her loving husband, Larry Sheubrooks of 48 years; her son, Jason (Jessica) Sheubrooks; grandchildren, Wyatt, Sawyer, Summer and Willow; her sister and best friend, Oliva L. Clark; nieces and nephews, David Clark, III, J. Brian Clark, Debbie Rasnick, Susan Rosenthal, Sherry Weshsler, Sheila Chanaud, Sandra Lamb, Carl Laws, Kara Prisock, and Kim Block; her sister in laws, Barbara Wilcox, Joyce (David) Laws and Phyllis Boone; and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and lifelong friends.

Please honor Judy's memory by investing time in your relationships. Sit with a friend over coffee, attend a child's game or visit a neighbor. As she would always say, "Enjoy life while you still can" because time waits for no one. Judy's legacy of love and friendship will live on in all she touched.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday October 14, 2020, at Centreville United Methodist Church from 11 a.m. – 12 p.m. with services to begin at noon.

In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Judy may be sent to Compass Regional Hospice, Inc., 160 Coursevall Dr., Centreville, MD 21617.

“ Judy being on the basketball team with you and Lois Hoxter was a blast. How Miss Hellyer would give us a workout. Working at "The Frez" we had such fun; laughing and eating and watching for the next car load of boys. We were so sad to see our shift end. Boys, I told Judy, "I will have a Centreville High ring on my finger, you wait and see." You not only got the ring you got the boy forever! I looked forward to Tuesday and Friday nights going to Sudlersville seeing you and Connie Hunter. Walked into Parkside, "Nancie, come over here and tell me the latest". I will miss those suppertimes and our many talks.

Larry, I am so sorry. Prayers and love to you and your family.

Larry and family: My heart is broken in losing such a great friend that I have known for over 65 years. We have many great memories and was always great to get together so we could reminisce. So glad I got to be with her last week. We laughed, we joked, we talked about the memories at the taste freeze, but most of all listening to her talking about her wonderful family. You all were so lucky to have had such a great loved one. She is now at peace and no longer suffering. Our community will surely miss her, but she was welcomed with open arms by our Saviour. Judy, you may gone from us, but you will never be forgotten. Keep on jitterbugging and one day we will be dancing together again. Love you girlfriend. God bless, Lynda P.

“ Although Judy and I went to Stevensville High School Together, I was privileged to share some of those early Ocean City years with the Legg’s, Coursey’s, and assorted cousins and friends. I also knew Larry from my friends in Centreville High School. When Judy and Larry began dating that was just the beginning of a long loving relationship. We would all be blessed by living our lives to their higher standard of kindness and love. Judy, May God wrap you in his arms until we meet again.

“ The first week of Aug. always found the Coursys ,Leggs, Sheubrooks,and many other family and friends on 9th street in OC. We would get up early and take our chairs and umbrellas down so we would all be able to sit together. So many wonderful memories and then we would all get together in the evening on the boards 9th street at the benches. Judy had special names for most of the young ones .French Fry was given to one who was always looking to steal one or two. Judy will be missed by all of us.
