“ I remember first meeting Judy when I was still a girl visiting Aunt Maggie and Uncle Frank's house. I thought she was so beautiful in her fur coat. And over the years, I recall that no one could make a bikini look as good as Judy! She was a joy to be around. And I am a better person because she became a member of our family. Frank, my heart goes out to you. And I have been praying for you even before we received the news. I love you and I love Judy. Thank you for sharing her with us. Her memory will always be in my heart. XOXO
