

Juliana Kasius Dulmage

October 5, 1941 - May 29, 2022

Juliana Kasius Dulmage of Chestertown, MD, died May 29, 2022, at Heron Point. She was 80.

Born October 5, 1941, to the late William and Dorothy Scholze Kasius, Juli grew up in Roslyn Heights, NY, and attended the nearby Cathedral School of St. Mary. After graduating from Bryn Mawr College in 1963, she moved to New York City, where she met and in 1968 married the late Glenn Dulmage.

In 1970, Juli and Glenn joined the Peace Corps and were stationed in Ivory Coast, Africa, where they taught English for five years. After leaving Ivory Coast, they moved to Mashhad, Iran, where they continued their teaching careers. Upon returning to the United States in 1978, Juli received her Master's degree in English and was hired by the Northfield Mt. Hermon School, where she taught English as a Second Language for 17 years.

In 1998, Juli and Glenn retired to Chestertown, MD, where she quickly became involved in local groups and organizations. She was a volunteer with the Eastern Neck National Wildlife Refuge and Pets on Wheels, and served on the WC-ALL Council and on the boards of HomePorts and the Friends of the Kent County Public Library. Juli enjoyed traveling, birding, reading, playing the recorder, and working in her garden. She was a dog lover, with a special fondness for beagles.

In addition to her parents and husband, Juli was predeceased by a sister, Cornelia Kasius Ford. She is survived by her daughter Cornelia Dulmage and son-in-law Zachariah Schmitt of Chestertown, as well as by her beloved nieces and nephews: Hadley, Alexandra, Will and Jud Ford.

A memorial service will be held at Heron Point at a later date to be announced. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be directed to the Northfield Mt. Hermon School or to any of the local organizations of which she was a part.

“ I am saddened to find out Julie has passed on. I knew her from Iran, where she and Glenn taught. Our friendship continued on to Northfield Mt. Hermon and then to Maryland. Hostess extraordinaire! Super champ Scrabble player. I will never forget her. Rest in peace, Julie. I'll miss you.

“ I remember Juli, who was my colleague at Northfield Mount Hermon School, for her willingness and ability to take on large and complex tasks and complete them with skill and grace, as the quintessential community member, as witty and fun, and as gentle and kind to all.

“ I so enjoyed Juli and Glenn during my time at NMH. If they were at a lunch table, that was the one I joined. I served on a few committees with Juli, and always marveled at her diplomacy, her hard work, and her sheer competence. When I went off to work at another school, one that wasn't always as organized as it should be, I remember blurting out at a Head Staff meeting, "We need our own Juli Dulmage!" We found a pretty good one, but nothing like the real thing. Kind, funny and so deeply human, Juli made my stay at that good school better by far than it would have been without her.

“ My beloved Aunt “July” was a mother to me all of my life, and a loving grandmother to my children. Words cannot express the love I have for both she and Glenn. The holiday and birthday celebrations, and the many Block Island vacations we shared are among my most cherished memories. Their loss in my world is unparalleled. Juli had a kind word for everyone. She never judged, she always listened and had wonderful words of wisdom to share. My favorite Aunt Juli quote is that “you can have it all, but you can't have it all at the same time”. Words to live by. May you Rest In Peace my beautiful Aunt July. I love you forever. ❤️ Alex

“ Mrs. Dulmage was one of my dorm parents at NMH long ago. She was a lovely person, a talented educator, and a wonderful friend.
