“ When I walked Nori, our black toy poodle, in the neighborhood and Julianne was playing outside she liked to pet her. The last time I saw Julianne, she told me Nori is the cutest dog ever and made me laugh and smile. She had a wonderful spirit. The Lord must have needed a very special angel to soar with Him in heaven. Sending our love and prayers to her wonderful family and friends. Lisa W. and Don Saunders.

“ The last time i was with Julianne we shared a really nice homemade meal together. Then we sat at the dinning room table and i showed her how to draw the Md.Flag. We talked and talked as we colored it in together. To say that she left a lasting impression on me would be an understatement. She was a rare gem and there are not nearly enough adjectives to describe that precious angel of a young lady...A true gift
