

Julia Sophie Bornhoeft

September 20, 2000

Julia Sophie Bornhoeft of Easton, formerly of Annapolis, died on Wednesday, September 20, 2000 at the William Hill Manor in Easton. She was 98. Born in New York City on February 24, 1902, she was the daughter of the late Vincent and Sophie Kuchera Zvonik. After graduating from high school, she worked as a secretary until her marriage in 1922 to John Edward Bornhoeft. They made their home on Long Island before moving to Annapolis in 1960 where she was a member of the Trinity United Methodist and her husband was one of the founders of the Annapolis Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Bornhoeft died in August 1982 and, in July of 1990, she moved to Easton where she was a member of the St. Mark's United Methodist Church. Mrs. Bornhoeft is survived by a son, Warren G. Bornhoeft of Centreville; six grandchildren, Nancy M. Koval of Chester, Susan B. McCartan of Dousman, WI, Jeanne L. Rowe of Greensboro, Laura A. O'Brien of McHenry, IL, John W. Bornhoeft of Henderson, and Peter W. Bornhoeft of Ridgely; and eight great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton on Monday, September 25, 2000 at 11:00 AM. Friends may call at the church one hour prior to the service. Burial in Maryland Veterans Cemetery in Crownsville will be on Monday, September 25, 2000 at 1:00 PM.
