“ Carol and Nancy and family, I was so very sorry to learn of your mother's passing. Although it has been quite a while since I have seen her I will always remember her gentleness and warm smile. She made me feel very comfortable whenever I walked into her home. I know she took great comfort in being at Londonderry especially after your father passed away. Wasn't he the visionary for knowing she would be safe and well cared for living at Londonderry. I know all of you will miss your Mother terribly. She was a great lady. My condolences to each of you.##imported-begin##Lynne Ewing##imported-end##
